Contributions welcome.

From the Co-Editor:

Ever have one of those weeks?

Things are starting to cool down around here, and that means – or it's supposed to mean – that things also start to slow down, but somehow that never seems to be the case with us.

Between day job assignments and doctor appointments, we still tend to be pretty busy just in the day-to-day, but we still managed to get this put together sooner than the end of the month! It's even in your hands in time to visit the Pubnites event if you're in that neck of the woods.

I will apologize for the lack of imagery in our eFanzine section this ish. For some reason, the site wouldn't let me copy any cover art over into the document, and I figured to get the Gazette out to you in a timely manner rather than spend an entire evening trying to figure out a workaround.

New York Comic-Con has just ended, and we enter our slower convention season going into the fourth quarter, but there are still a lot of events between now and the end of the year. If you're planning to attend one, maybe send some photos our way to include in a future issue?

And if you know about an event that's not on our list, by all means send it our way so we can include it in the listing here and over at SciFi4Me.com – that list is just eleven away from four thousand active conventions and comic-cons worldwide. Mindy does yeoman's work on that, maintaining and updating pretty much non-stop so we have bragging rights: it's the largest most up-to-date and inclusive list anywhere we can find on the internet.

As always, your letters of comment are welcome and appreciated.

~ Jason

LETTERS

Dear Mindy and Jason,

I trust both of you are well!

Thank you for featuring my ads for eAPA, the electronic APA, and for "Across the Fandomension," my attempt to provide an informational website for Canadian and Pacific Northwest fans. And for fans and for writers elsewhere, as things have worked out.

Thank you also for listing a whole lot of upcoming conventions in the Pacific Northwest and in Canada!

It was amusing to find Melbourne International Games Week listed as an event in Melbourne, Victoria, Canada. I must have missed the news about Canada amalgamating with Australia. I have no objection, although I guess the passenger and freight transportation must be a problem. (Seriously, when I see the word "Victoria" my first thought is of my hometown in British Columbia, just a few hours' drive north of Seattle. There are a lot of Victorias around the globe. And Sydneys. And Vancouvers.)

Yours, Garth

Dear Mindy:

Thank you for V6#4 of the Fan Gazette. I always figured that deadlines were infinitely flexible with fan projects. As Douglas Adams said, "I love deadlines. I love the whooshing sound they make as they go by." Time for some comments on what you've got here.

My loc…work continues to get a litcon going up here. Our biggest discoveries…the hotels we would use have renovated post-pandemic, and large hospitality areas are gone, converted into prime rooms with even more prime prices. Nothing new on the Mythcon front, but with luck, soon…

Birthdays…with some of the people listed here, and the fact that some of them are approaching 100 years of age, you might want to put a 19 in front of some of those years. Don Wollheim was born in 1914, and 10/1/14 makes it look like he's about to turn 12, instead of 112. Picky? That's what I do for a living.

This past weekend was a big literary festival in Toronto, Word on the Street, and a shared a table to sell Amazing Selects books. Had a great time, and sales were quite good, better than last year.

On the convention list, you have the Melbourne International Games week in Melbourne, Victoria, Canada. That was actually in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

All done for the moment. Time to think about some dinner tonight. Keep them coming!

Yours, Lloyd Penney.

[Lloyd: Thanks for catching that! I'll start looking through those listings to update. ~ jph]

Convention Corner

Stealth Con (Warrensburg, MO) has posted on Facebook that the event originally planned for October 31 and November 1, has been cancelled. Ticket sales were too low to support moving forward with the event. All sponsorship payments, vendor fees, and ticket purchases will be fully refunded. No word on whether they will attempt another event in 2027.

Kawacon (San Antonio, TX) has announced that after five years, they will cease operations "for the foreseeable future." No reasons were shared. The fifth and perhaps final event was held in July 2026.

Comic Con Honolulu (Honolulu, HI) has posted that the event remains postponed as they "explore options for 2027 and 2028 so we can bring you the convention the community deserves."

Vincent Di Fate, A Science Fiction Guy

By his own description, Vincent Di Fate is a science fiction kind of guy. He is deeply interested in science fiction as it is written and as it is recorded, the science of science fiction and especially the art of science fiction. You probably know him best for his award-winning science fiction art, or his magnificent SF art history, Infinite Worlds. What you may not know is that he was a fairly prolific fan artist at the same time as he started his professional career, well known in NY fan circles. You may not know about his 50s SF movie obsession, his university career, or his connection with the film industry. Join us to learn about the both the fannish side and the professional side of Vincent Di Fate, Hugo winning artist, member of the Science Fiction and Fantasy Hall of Fame as well as the Hall of Fame of the Society of Illustrators, founder of ASFA, and a graduate of the hardcore John W. Campbell school of SF art.

'ZINE RESOURCE

Mr. Garth Spencer, editor of The Obdurate Eye, has announced a new resource for 'zines. Across the Fandomension provides information on Canadian fan activities as well as information on fandom and science fiction publishing in other countries.

The listings include fanzines (such as the Gazette), contemporary fan organizations, fan art, convention information and event news, and archive material from fandoms past.

You can find this a more at https://www.vcn.bc.ca/~garth2/

SHARE YOUR 'ZINE

Back in the day, going all the way back to the 1930s, there were quite a few choices when it came to fanzines. Nowadays, they're a little harder to come by. Which ones have we missed? Which ones are you reading? Share with us your favorite set of 'zines from the multiverse! And if you publish a 'zine, send us a copy!

October 2026 New Fantasy and Science Fiction Releases

Walter Bruce Sinclair

- Anning, Benedict. Atomic Coffin. S&S/Saga, 25.00 tp.

December 1984. SIS field asset Heidi Sperling (codename Thistle) exfiltrates from East Berlin with the sole copy of a critical intelligence leak. A previously unidentified Soviet submarine, known only as TK-15, has been sitting motionless and undetected in the waters between Scotland and Iceland for three whole years. But here, in the crushing depths of the North Atlantic, it seems something darker has awoken - something that cannot be contained by any superpower.

- Armstrong, Kelley. Dive Bar at the End of the Road. St. Martin's, 25.99 tp.

Just before midnight, a car swerves to avoid something - or someone - mysteriously standing in the road, only to slam into a fallen tree instead. In the pitch black, four more cars follow in a pileup no one can seem to avoid. Stumbling out of the wreckage, soaked from the rain and nursing various injuries, five strangers find themselves in a backwoods dive bar, waiting for daybreak and hoping for cell service. They quickly learn that going outside - whether to assist another accident victim or to hike for help - is a very bad idea.

- Authors, Various. The Weird Tales Collection. Sirius, 34.99 hc.

A number of writers made their reputations in the pulp magazine Weird Tales, which first appeared in 1922. This collection brings together many of the greatest stories published in that magazine, including 'The Call of Cthulhu' by H. P. Lovecraft, 'The Shadow Kingdom' by Robert E. Howard, 'The Dark Eidolon' by Clark Ashton Smith, 'The Hounds of Tindalos' by Frank Belknap Long, and 'The Graveyard Rats' by Henry Kuttner.

- Banta, Bel. The Court of Venus. Tor, 41.99 hc.

In the deadly, Tudor-inspired magical court power is determined by the stars - and the closer you are to the king, the more likely you are to die. Bianca, a moon-blessed magician, is summoned back to the court she thought she had escaped.

- Barnes, J. S.. Ebenezer Scrooge: Ghost Hunter. Titan, 36.99 hc.

Seven years have passed since the events of A Christmas Carol. Those afflicted by spirits and hauntings know of Ebenezer Scrooge as a man who can help rid them of the unquiet dead. So, when Louisa Fell invites him to investigate her family home on the coast of England, he is more than happy to oblige. But the mysteries at the Fell house are deep and terrifying, and the more Scrooge uncovers, the more he risks awakening the ghosts of his past, present, and of things yet to come.

- Birmingham, John. The Forever Dead. [The Cruel Stars Trilogy #3]. Del Rey, 38.99 hc.

The Sturm, a group of "species purists" intent on destroying any human with genetic or cybernetic enhancements, returned from the far reaches of Dark Space to wage a war against humanity. A small group of reluctant heroes managed to beat back the vastly superior invading force. But the Sturm weren't fully defeated, and their remaining forces are intent on ripping apart the crew that thwarted their original plans - even if it leads to the destruction of the galaxy.

- Bishop, Anne. Turns of Fate. [An Isle of Wyrd #1]. Ace, 28.99 tp.

Some people come to Destiny Park to make a bargain with the Arcana, the paranormal beings who rule the Isle of Wyrd, to change their fate. And some people come for dark purposes. When young Detective Beth Fahey is sent to Destiny Park to inquire about a "ghost gun," she will begin a strange journey on which she must learn to navigate the Arcana's unforgiving laws and dangerous attractions. Her search will draw her into seemingly impossible cases and the secrets of her own past as tensions rise between the Arcana and their human neighbours across the river.

- Blake, Olivie & John Joseph Adams (eds). The Best American Science Fiction and Fantasy 2026. Mariner, 24.99 tp.

The best of the year anthology includes contributions from Sarah Langan, Thomas Ha, Alix E. Harrow, Alex Irvine, Naomi Kanakia, Isabel J. Kim, Rich Larson, Ray Nayler, P. C. Verrone, and others.

- Britain, Kristen. Falling in a Sea of Stars. [Green Rider #8]. Daw, 32.00 tp.

Mornhavon the Black has reawakened and freed two undead wraiths from their imprisoning tombs to hunt Karigan down and bring her to him in Blackveil Forest. In a deadly confrontation with one of the wraiths amid the frivolity of the Harvest Ball, Karigan is left vulnerable to the intrigues of another old adversary she thought destroyed long ago. Haunted by the unceasing rhythm of the dance, she falls endlessly through the frigid dark of the heavens.

- Broadbent, Carissa. Daughter of No Worlds. [War of Lost Hearts #1]. Bramble, 27.99 tp.

The night Tisaanah tries to buy her freedom, she barely escapes with her life. Desperate to save the best friend she left behind, Tisaanah journeys to the Orders, the most powerful organizations of magic wielders in the world. To join their ranks, she must complete an apprenticeship with fire-wielder Maxantarius Farlione and prove herself under the threat of looming war.

- Buehlman, Christopher. Thrice-Bound Fool. [Blacktongue #2]. Tor, 41.99 hc.

The life of professional thief and inveterate trickster Kinch Na Shannack depends on him deciphering a very bad book indeed; a stolen, sentient tome that tries to kill him every time he opens it - and often when it's closed. Galva, veteran of the goblin wars and death's sworn handmaiden, has vowed to protect Kinch while he mines the book for its dark magic and even darker secrets. Not for his sake, but because the book is the key to stopping the shadowy tyrants out to kill the queen she serves.

- Butcher, Jim. Twelve Months. [Dresden Files #18]. Ace, 29.00 tp.

Ghouls are prowling Chicago and taking out innocent civilians. Harry's brother is dying, and Harry doesn't know how to help him. And last but certainly not least, the Winter Queen of the Fae has allied with the White Court of Vampires - and Harry's been betrothed to the seductive, deadly vampire Lara Raith to seal the deal. It's been a tough year.

- Butcher, James J. Grim Folk Tale. [The Unorthodox Chronicles #4]. Ace, 41.99 hc.

When a magical illness begins to afflict children in Boston, junior Auditor Grimshaw Griswald Grimsby is tasked with uncovering the source and - together with his partner, the grizzled veteran Huntsman Mayflower - putting a stop to it by any means necessary. But their efforts to determine the origin of the spreading malady are soon complicated by the emergence of ancient and strange beings that Grimsby and Mayflower have never encountered before.

- Byron, Grace. Herculine. Saga, 25.00 tp.

Our narrator's life includes several hallmarks of the typical trans girl sob story - conversion therapy, a string of shitty low-paying jobs, and even shittier exes - but she also regularly debates sleep paralysis demons. Stalked by a new, malevolent force through the streets of NYC, she takes refuge in an all-trans girl commune in the middle of the woods. But something isn't quite right at Herculine.

- Campbell, Annabel. The Void Dragon. [The Shattered Lands #2]. Orbit, 25.99 tp.

Hunted by dragonriders, Naila must seek sanctuary at the great library of Awasef. Perhaps here she will find some answers--if they don't kill her first. But the land of Dahran is on a knife edge. The Queen's advisor, the Wazira, is abducting mages and forcing them to join her cause. Worse still, Haelius Akana - Naila's friend and the greatest wizard of his age--is among them.

- Cesare, Adam. Video Night. Union Square, 24.99 tp.

It's 1988 and two best friends - one departing for college, one destined for bad boy townie life - decide to have a final video night. They've got pizza and beer, and Tom even managed to convince his girlfriend, Darcy, to bring a friend, Billy's neighbor and crush, Rachel. But there's an invasion underway, and across the street, Rachel's sister, Rhonda, is one of the first to turn. A slithering, chitinous evil has overtaken her body and mind, and she'll do anything to spread the alien infection.

- Cesare, Adam. Mercy House. Del Rey, 27.00 tp.

Welcome to Mercy House, a state-of-the-art retirement home that appears perfectly clean and orderly - but something is turning the residents into monsters.

- Clarke, Susanna. The Bishop of Durham Attempts to Surrender the City. Bloomsbury, 22.99 hc.

An illustrated short story set in the world of Jonathan Strange and Mr Norrell, in which the city of Durham is besieged by a fairy host.

- Cliffwater, Ivy. The Storm Weaver. [The Shadow Weaver #2]. Hachette Australia, 29.99 tp.

As Caris journeys far from Torgrin and attempts to discover more about her power, Torgrin is tortured by the distance between them, even though he knows being with Caris is impossible. In trying to do the best by his people, he is forced to make a decision that feels like a betrayal.

- Cook, Glen. Lies Weeping. [Black Company A Pitiless Rain #1]. Tor, 30.99 tp.

In Hsien the company returns to their former base, An Abode of Ravens, where the Lady ages backwards in a return to force, shaking off the thrall, one breath at a time. At first, life in Hsien appears quiet, even boring, but it is quickly apparent that strange goings on are more than what they seem, and it's up to them to discover the truth hidden in the shadows of this strange land.

- Cooke, C. J. The House of Cursed Daughters. HarperCollins, 25.99 tp.

France, 1312. Though Queen Isabella's baby boy not only secures her ill-starred marriage but her own precarious future, a 13-generation curse hangs over her family. London, 1865. The corridors of Bedlam Lunatic Asylum move like white serpents around Lois. But if her memories are the manifestations of insanity, then who is the little boy who calls her Mama? Brittany, 2026. Emma is preparing to marry Sam, a financier from New York in a castle in the French countryside, when her 16-year-old daughter Ivy steals a diamond intended for the wedding and awakens a dark force.

- Cooke, C. J. The Lighthouse Witches. HarperCollins, 13.99 tp.

Upon the cliffs of a remote Scottish island, Lon Haven, stands a lighthouse that has weathered more than storms. Mysterious and terrible events have happened on this island. It started with a witch hunt. Now, centuries later, islanders are vanishing without explanation. Liv Stay flees to the island with her three daughters, in search of a home. Within months, her daughter Luna will be the only one of them left.

- Daniels, Gillian. Jenny Will Eat You Now: A Meat Cute. Gallery, 26.00 tp.

Jenny Greenteeth prefers to keep her own company beneath the streets of Boston, where she's lived for hundreds of years. With a conviction that she is far superior to humans - who are petty, dangerous, and fragile - she has no qualms about satisfying her hunger with their flesh. That is, until she comes face to face with a human man who, for the first time, she doesn't want to eat (but also...she kind of does).

- Davey, Heather. The Memory Tree. Titan, 24.99 tp.

When her husband, Ben, takes on his first parish in the rural community of Hope-under-Barrow, Kate Greenwood feels like it could be a fresh start for the family. But from the moment they arrive, something just feels... off. It could be the locals, with their strange rituals and rites. Or it could be the yew tree which stands in a graveyard bordering their garden, whose presence brings headaches, visions and disturbing, unfamiliar memories that do not belong to Kate.

- Delemhach. The Dues & Don'ts of Magic. [Magic Dues Trilogy #1]. Simon & Schuster, 40.00 hc.

Spidena Kettle runs a quiet magic shop at the edge of town, selling just enough spells and potions to keep herself afloat - and out of trouble - when Benthrop Hozel enters her shop one day. On the run from the nefarious sort, he simply wishes to be forgotten by his pursuers. In exchange, he promises a favour. Such a deal could have dire consequences if Ben is unable to fulfill his end of the bargain.

- Dimitri, Francesco. Pan. Tor, 40.99 hc.

Across the sprawling metropolis of Rome, children dream of an island that doesn't exist. An old god returns. Anarchy, destruction, and extreme emotions nourish it. A new god has emerged. Order and subjugation are its intentions. They fought once before. This time it will be to the death. Magic is returning to the world and in the skies above the city, children clash with pirates while deities old and new fight for dominance of Rome. And the people will learn Pan is coming, and it's coming for them.

- Durham, Jonathan Edward. Winterset Hollow. Union Square, 25.99 tp.

When Eamon and his two closest friends, Caroline and Mark, journey to Addington Isle, they hope to explore the island that inspired their favorite book, Winterset Hollow - a timeless tale about a tribe of animals preparing for their yearly end-of-summer festival. But when the trio break into the author's apparently abandoned estate, they discover that much of what the world believes to be fantasy is real, and that the truth behind their beloved story is darker and more dangerous than they ever imagined.

- Ennes, Hiron. The Works of Vermin. Tor, 25.99 tp.

Enter the decadent, deadly city of Tiliard, a metropolis carved into the stump of an ancient tree. In its canopy, the pampered elite warp minds with toxic perfume. In its roots, Guy Moulene, an exterminator, hunts a centipede the size of a dragon with a deadly venom and a ravenous taste for artwork. As it digests Tiliard from the sewers to the opera houses, its toxin reshapes the future of the city. No sane person would hunt it, if they had the choice. Guy doesn't have a choice.

Hidden safely beyond the borders of human space, Hadrian awaits the arrival of the one ally he has left, the Jaddian Prince Kaim-Olorin du Otranto. The armies of men have grown complacent, but Hadrian knows the truth. The inhuman Cielcin are gathering their strength, preparing for their final assault against the heart of all mankind. Only Hadrian possesses the power to stem the tide: an ancient war machine, forged by the daimon machines at the dawn of time.

- Samotin, Laura R. The Darkness Bites Back. Angry Robot, 26.99 tp.

Danger and desire clash in a Romeo and Juliet retelling set in modern-day Oxford, with enemy vampires on opposite sides of a brutal power struggle, where the couple are forced to choose between their families and each other.

- Sapkowski, Andrzej. Crossroads of Ravens. [The Witcher]. Orbit, 25.99 tp.

Geralt of Rivia was a fresh graduate of Kaer Morhen, stepping into a world that neither understands nor welcomes his kind. And when an act of naive heroism goes gravely wrong, Geralt is only saved from the noose by Preston Holt, a grizzled witcher with a buried past and an agenda of his own. Under Holt's guiding hand, Geralt begins to learn what it truly means to walk the Path - to protect a world that fears him, and to survive in it on his own terms.

- Schwab, V. E. Victorious. [Villains #3]. Tor, 43.99 hc.

Series conclusion. Eli Ever. Victor Vale. Two men, first best friends, then mortal enemies, each destined to be the other's shadow. One is left standing--but the game isn't over yet. Against all the years (and the odds) a group of allies and arch rivals meet on a chess board set by an opponent they couldn't have predicted....to see who will be victorious. Signed copies available.

- Shepherd, Ben. Blood Drunk. Grand Central, 40.00 hc.

Freddie Burns just wants ten pints, a spot of football violence, and to take over his uncle's fading South London crime business. But when a gangland execution goes wrong, Freddie discovers a new kind of organized crime - one where vampires are spine-breakingly real and monsters hide just out of sight. Good thing Freddie has a supernatural gift for giving vampires a kicking - them and anyone else that looks at him funny.

- Shine, A. M. Grace. Aries, 22.99 tp.

Off the west coast of Ireland lies a lonely island, isolated and wilfully forgotten. Grace, adopted at four years old, has never known where she came from. A mysterious phone call leads her back to the island where she was born - and where a terrible evil has been disturbed. As the evil starts to spread, Grace finds herself dragged back into a living nightmare that threatens to engulf anyone who steps into its path.

- Siegel, Natasha. As Many Souls As Stars. Morrow, 24.99 tp.

1592. Cybil Harding is a First Daughter. Cursed to bring disaster to those around her, she is trapped in a house with a mother paralyzed by grief and a father willing to sacrifice everything in pursuit of magic. Miriam Richter is a creature of shadow, eternal, killing mortals and consuming their souls. She offers Cybil reincarnation in exchange for her soul. Thus begins a dance across centuries as Miriam seeks Cybil in every lifetime to claim her prize.

- Singer, Alex T. Angel Country. Saga, 28.00 tp.

One morning in 1904, scientist Ada Franklin wakes up in her own grave. Clawing her way out, she discovers her lab abandoned and her research partner gone - along with her life's work: a prototype designed to enable human-angel communication. Ada's attempted murder suggests the ability to communicate with - and perhaps control - angels is a power worth killing for.

- Slatter, A. G. Fitcher's Bird. Titan, 26.99 hc.

When sisters Chloe, Zoe and Dido were children, their father died and their mother could no longer care for them, so they were sent to live with the local doctor's family: mother, father and three sons. Soon after, however, Ashwood Farm burned to the ground, and only the three young girls survived. Now, years later, first Chloe, and then Zoe disappears. It's left to Dido to rake through their history and find out if her sisters are still in the world or paying the price for what happened that long ago summer night.

- Slatter, A. G. The Cold House. Titan, 23.99 tp.

After Everly Bainbridge's husband takes their child to the supermarket one day and a lorry collides with their car, killing both, a lawyer appears on her doorstep and tells her that her husband was not who he said he was and she is a very rich widow. She retreats to a lonely house in the countryside to recover. But there's a well in the cellar, a spectacularly cold room, and one night, Everly wakes up with a foot hanging over the emptiness of the well and the echo of her daughter's voice in her ears...

- Speer, K. L. Fangs. [Bone Series #2]. Ballantine, 29.00 tp.

When her older brother appears in her clinic at the Vault and abducts her at gunpoint, Bones knows her time has finally run out, and the past she tried to escape has caught up to her. But the gods have taken notice of her - and her potential - and enemies new and old are circling. When her magic begins to evolve in mysterious ways, Bones is forced to decide who she wants to be in the face of the terrifying forces that threaten to alter the entire world.

- St. Crowe, Nikki. West of Wicked. [Great and Terrible Land #1]. Bramble, 26.99 tp.

It isn't long before Dorothy encounters the dark side of Oz, stumbling on a man beaten and bloody, tied to a pole in a cornfield. Not unlike the scarecrows on the Kansas farm. With no memories, the mysterious stranger joins Dorothy. Rook is ridiculously handsome, endlessly charming, and somehow understands Dorothy in a way no one ever has. But when they cross paths with the infamous Tinman and his axe, Rook proves he may be hiding his own secrets. Nothing and no one is what they seem in the cursed land of Oz...maybe even Dorothy herself.

- Starling, Caitlin. The Graceview Patient. Griffin, 26.00 tp.

Margaret's rare autoimmune condition has destroyed her life. It has no cure, but she's making do as best she can - until she's offered a fully paid-for spot in an experimental medical trial at Graceview Memorial. She subjects herself to the near-total destruction of her immune system and its subsequent regeneration. But as the treatment progresses and her body begins to fail, she stumbles upon something sinister living and spreading within the hospital.

- Stephenson, Neal. D: Heavy Water. [Bomb Light #2]. Morrow, 42.00 hc.

1934. British journalist Owen Crisp-Upjohn is dispatched to Moscow, where his assignments quickly escalate from cultural reporting to international espionage. He finds himself pulled into the orbit of the enigmatic Earl of Suffolk, a maverick aristocrat, and Aurora, a curiously compelling woman with a shadowy past rooted in Soviet intelligence. Their mission soon becomes clear: secure the earth's only supply of deuterium - "heavy water" - before it falls into Nazi hands.

- Stirling, S. M. To Turn The Tide. [Make the Darkness Light #1]. Baen, 12.99 pb.

A scientist in Austria, seeing the nuclear holocaust approaching, created a time machine, and filled a warehouse with low-tech survival gear. Too bad he didn't get to use it himself. Instead, a team of American grad students, led by their professor, is sent back to the late Roman Empire. Even though they are experts in this time and place, they are about to realize that books and actual experience are very different things.

- Stirling, S. M. Rome To The Stars. [Pax Astra #1]. Baen, 37.00 hc.

Rome reaches for empire into the depths of the galaxy. A warlord coalition has decided to challenge Rome and with a surprise attack has seized a few border worlds. But the Roman space navy will deliver legions to two worlds the warlords have attacked, and keep the supply lines open as best they can. Rome's history is of victory, and they do not doubt it will continue... whatever the warlords' advantages.

- Strahan, Jonathan (ed). The Book of the Dead. Voyager, 56.00 hc.

A collection of brand-new stories of murder, myth, and misadventure including contributions from international bestsellers Garth Nix, Paul Tremblay, Stephen Graham Jones, Tamsyn Muir, and two dozen other fantasy, science fiction, and horror icons, featuring stunning illustrations from Galen Dara.

- Summers, Georgia. The Bookshop Below. Redhook, 25.99 tp.

If you want a story that will change your life, Chiron's bookshop is where you go, a world of powerful bargains and deadly ink magic. For Cassandra Fairfax, it's a reminder of everything she lost, when Chiron kicked her out and all but shuttered the shop. Now Chiron has died under mysterious circumstances - and if Cassandra knows anything, it's this: the bookshop must always have an owner. But she's not the only one interested.

- Taylor, Dennis E. We Are Legion (We Are Bob). [Bobiverse #1]. Saga, 30.00 tp.

[BC author]. Moments after signing the paper to have his head cryogenically frozen, Bob Johansson is killed crossing the street. A century later, Bob wakes up, not in a utopia but an Earth on the precipice of war. America is run by an extremist government that stripped his rights as a frozen head, uploaded his consciousness into an AI, and selected him to search space for habitable planets as a self-replicating von Neumann probe. Using his new abilities and the von Neuman technology he does what any engineer would do. He makes more Bobs - and a virtual cat - and sets to save humanity before it's too late.

- Tchaikovsky, Adrian. Lives of Bitter Rain: A Tyrant Philosophers Novella. AdAstra, 22.99 tp.

Angilly, twelve-years-old, a child of Pal soldiers stationed in occupied Jarokir, does not know it yet, but a sequence of accidents and questionable life choices will lead her to Outreach, that part of the Pal machine responsible for diplomacy. As she travels from Jarrokir to Bracinta, Cazarkand, Lemas, the Holy Regalate of Stouk and finally, Usmai, she'll learn that the price of her nation's success is paid in compromise and lost chances, and that the falling rain will always be bitter.

- Thomson, Elaine. Saltwater: A Midsummer Ghost Story. Sphere, 29.99 hc.

The Isle of Stroma, 1896. Tom Torrance has been sent to oversee the completion of a new lighthouse. The construction so far has been plagued by difficulties, giving rise to superstitious whisperings amongst the men, but Tom will not be cowed by stories of hauntings and bad omens. Yet he is unprepared for the isolation and delirium of the endless summer nights. He soon learns that the real dangers on the island have nothing to do with the wild waves.

- Thorne, Rebecca. This Crimson Ruin. [Titan's Wrath #2]. Tor, 26.99 tp.

When Sergeant Nix Marr signed up as her ex's bodyguard for a trip to the domed city of Fall, she doubted she'd return alive. But neither woman could have predicted the cataclysmic event that stranded them both beneath the ocean. Worse, Fall has been completely abandoned, ruins of a once-grand city. Aside from the occasional infected citizen, there's no indicator where the rest of Fall's population went.

- Torres, Nicolina. Night of the Mallrats. Perennial, 24.99 tp.

Five friends travel back to a 1990s shopping mall to solve the brutal murder and disappearance of two of their high school peers.

- Vassanji, M. G. The Apparition. Doubleday Canada, 38.00 hc.

13th-century Delhi. As court intrigue and fears of invading Mongol armies have plunged the empire into turmoil, a strange, luminous presence suddenly appears in the western sky. Strange, winged conquerors descend upon the city. The Avians, a half-man/half-bird race of beings, claim to offer a purer and more peaceful order. But new cruelties slowly take root. Books are censored, memories rewritten, and those who question the new regime mysteriously vanish into the night.

- Vo, Nghi. The Scarlett Ball. Tor, 40.99 hc.

Judith Ban, former convent girl, courtesan, and failed thief, is on the lookout for her next identity. The daughter of a Vietnamese adventuress and a French naval officer, she's no stranger to risk, but she's unprepared for the secrets of New York's legendary Four Hundred, or for the women who build their power at the city's heart through blood-soaked, gold-etched rituals of demonic marriage.

- Wallace, Auralee. The Haunted Librarian. Ace, 28.99 tp.

[Canadian author]. Amelia, the newly hired librarian, is shocked to discover the building is full of more than quiet stories and warm cups of tea. There are curious, talkative patrons, a shy, bespectacled head librarian who makes her heart skip a beat, and three quirky spirits causing paranormal havoc that endangers the future of the library.

- Weber, David (ed). Challenges. [Worlds of Honor #8]. Baen, 25.00 tp.

A collection of all-original stories set in the world of Honor Harrington and Haven by David Weber, Marisa Wolf, Jacob Holo, Dan Butler, Thomas Pope, and Jane Lindskold.

- Wehunt, Michael. The October Film Haunt. Griffin, 26.00 tp.

Ten years ago, Jorie Stroud was the rising star of the October Film Haunt - a trio of horror enthusiasts who camped out at the filming locations of their favorite scary movies, sharing their love through their popular blog. But after a night in the graveyard from Proof of Demons - perhaps the most chilling cult film ever made, directed by the enigmatic Helene Enriquez - everything unraveled. Now, Jorie has built an isolated life with her young son in Vermont. Until a videotape arrives in the mail.

- Wehunt, Michael. Nightjars. St. Martin's, 42.00 hc.

On a rainy night, Luke Oshel gets stood up halfway through a blind date. But before she walks off to the bathroom and never returns, she leaves an old photograph under her napkin - Luke as a child, a dead body in the shadows of his bedroom, and a terrifying masked man. He has no recollection of this event. Then more photos disrupt his life - Luke posing with murder victims, covered in blood - and he falls back into the deep paranoia and repressed memories he's tried to leave behind.

- Wexler, Django. The Only Way Out Is Up. Orbit, 25.99 tp.

Taj has always fought. He's fought for survival from the gangs, for enough scrap metal and sigils to pay for his next meal, and to keep his sentient robot Star a secret. So far, they've managed to make enough money to get by and stay under the radar, but when Taj gambles big and loses, he's got to do something desperate to get back on his feet... like enter the most dangerous bot-fighting competition in the entire world.

- Willett, EDWARD (ed). On Spec 2026. [On Spec]. Shadowpaw, 29.99 tp.

Carrying on the legacy of On Spec magazine - Canada's home for new literature of the fantastic from 1989 to 2025 - On Spec 2026 collects twenty-eight original science fiction, fantasy, and horror stories by writers from coast to coast, including stories from Candas Jane Dorsey, Marcelle Dube etc.

- Williams, Tad. The Splintered Sun. DAW, 40.00 hc.

300 years before the events of The Dragonbone Chair. With the old King of Hernystir's health failing, warlords carve up the land and rival factions clash over the rightful heir. Into this chaos steps Flann, joined by allies both noble and common, to help the King's one legitimate heir claim his father's blessing and restore stability. But enemies, human and inhuman, stalk their every move, determined to end Flann's quest before it begins.

- Winkler, Kyle. The Ship of Death. Avon, 24.99 tp.

Cole and Lorraine play-test board games for extra cash. After a series of bizarre coincidences and signing a strange NDA, the couple finds on their porch a mysterious indie developer's tabletop role-playing game called the Ship of Death. Soon the boundary between the game and reality begins to dissolve, and the pair are instructed to possess a stranger's soul. Told entirely through game reports, emails, game forum posts, personal journals, and police reports.

- Yarros, Rebecca. Threshing Day. Entangled: Red Tower, 34.99 hc.

The next book in the blockbuster Empyrean series contains thirteen stories starring your favorite characters and their dragons, including 16 original black-and-white illustrations by artist Joe Requeza.

- Zeller, Mathilda. It Looks Like You in the Dark. Nightfire, 24.99 tp.

Tapeesa is newly out of high school and working in a fish processing plant in the Inupiat village, Chukchi, where she's lived her whole life. The Kobuk River Valley of remote Alaska draws greedy white men time and time again. But whenever they come, death comes too. This time the white men are here for the long term, to create an open pit, a lead mine just north of the village. When her sister Esther goes missing, Tapeesa will do anything to get her back.

NOVEMBER CONVENTIONS & EVENTS

Mindy Hunt

Each month we will provide a list of conventions from around the world. This list is constantly being updated throughout the month. You can find our full events list as well as a calendar at SciFi4Me.com.

But don't just stop at the list. Check out the calendar for more intimate events online and in-person. These range from release parties to readings and interviews with creators.

If you know of a local event, big or little, send us and email at events@scifi4me.com so we can add it and make it the most comprehensive conventions list on the internet.

There are currently 3,989 listings, and we continue to add events regularly.
